

Home Sellers - Now You Can Attract More Buyers! Sell Your Home Faster And For A Higher Price By Offering Potential Buyers Home Systems Breakdown Insurance.

Canadian home sellers can benefit from similar home protection services that Americans have used successfully for over 50 years. Home Systems Breakdown Warranty can make a resale home more attractive to buyers. Pre-Owned car dealers discovered over 60 years ago that sales increased dramatically when vehicles were protected by a warranty - statistics show the same is true for resale homes.

- Gallup has found that most home buyers would prefer to buy a home protected by Home Systems breakdown Warranty
- The National Home Warranty Association claims Home Systems protected homes sell much faster
- Business Week has stated Home Systems protected homes sell for more than non-protected homes
